

APRIL 21, 2022

Time (EST)	Session
12:00-1:10 pm	Keynote Presentation – Dr. Tracy Battaglia A path forward: Driving sustainability in patient navigation for cancer care equity
1:10-1:30 pm	Break
1:30-2:45 pm	Concurrent Sessions – Oral Presentations
	Concurrent Session 1	Concurrent Session 2	Concurrent Session 3
1:30-1:45 pm	Adrienne Young, MSW. Developing a youth engagement strategy at a mental health and addiction navigation service	Cathy Walsh, BA. Children, youth and families as partners in navigation	Natalie Ludlow, PhD. Creating a community health navigator community of practice using quality improvement
1:45-2:00 pm	Barry Hewitt, MSW RSW. Mental health and addiction system navigation within newfoundland and labrador	Katherine J. Kelly, PhD. Peer-to-peer support on facebook for caregivers of children with complex needs	Julia Orkin, MD, M.Sc., FRCP(C). Navigating transfers and shared care of paediatric eating disorder patients
2:00-2:15 pm	Roula Markoulakis, PhD. Qualitative exploration on supports needed for access to mental health and addictions care	Jessica Reid, MSW, RSW. Pathways to support social determinants of health in a pediatric rehabilitation hospital	Fedir Razumenko, PhD. Evaluating patient navigation as a boundary concept: A realist synthesis
2:15-2:30 pm	Kate Francombe Pridham, MSW. Discharging from hospital to health: navigation for patients experiencing homelessness	Julie Letendre, M.P.P., SGS. Inter-establishment navigator: An innovation for kids with musculoskeletal disorders	Anthony Levitt, MD, FRCPC. The client’s story in navigation: An intersection with narrative therapy
2:30-2:45 pm	Laura Thompson, OT Reg. (Ont.) Design and implementation of a student-led transition navigation service delivery model	Christine Harris, MDes. Supporting young adults in navigating their cancer experience	Siân Slade, BSc, MPH, MBA, PhD Candidate. Patient navigation in Australian healthcare
2:45-3:00 pm	Break

CANADIAN
HEALTHCARE
NAVIGATION
CONFERENCE

RE-IMAGINING
HEALTHCARE NAVIGATION:
Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Accessibility

3:00-4:00 pm

Poster Session

Poster Presentations

April MacDougall, M.A., R. Psych.
Hull Services' Mental Health and Addiction Navigator

Cat Goodfellow, PhD.
Using data to drive change in newcomer navigation

Danielle Kent, BSc.
Navigating the patchwork: A holistic Approach for living well for seniors in our community

Grailing Anthonisen, MA.
Hospital-based patient navigation programs for injury-related trauma: A scoping review

Hinaya Cader, BSc, MHSc.
A scoping review of mental health and addictions care needs for transition-aged youth and their families

Katie Wicik, M.Ed.
Navigation during the COVID-19 pandemic

Lucyna M Lach, PhD.
A Guide to Building Community Capacity for Neurodivergent Individuals and Their Families

Megan Patton, BAsSc(c).
Preliminary Findings from READY2Exit: A Patient-Oriented, Mixed Methods Study

Michelle Lu, General Associate, Family Medicine.
Review on navigation impact in families of children with complex health needs

Michelle Quinlan
The national newcomer navigation network community of practice model

Raisa Ladha, BPH, MSc.
Shades of care: understanding how BIPOC mothers and children experience paediatric care

Rosemary Kohr, PhD.
Key healthcare gaps identified by Canadian navigators

Roula Markoulakis, PhD.
A Framework for Youth Engagement in Mental Health and/or Addiction Navigation Services

Shelley Doucet, RN, PhD.
Patient navigation programs for people with dementia: An environmental scan

April 22, 2022

Time (EST)	Session
12:00-1:10 pm	Keynote Presentation – Ms. Jessica Geboers My transition from paediatric care: Navigating in the real world
1:10-1:30 pm	Break
1:30-2:45 pm	Concurrent Sessions – Oral Presentations
	Concurrent Session 1	Concurrent Session 2	Concurrent Session 3
1:30-1:45 pm	Lillian MacNeill, PhD. Evaluating the implementation of a pediatric patient navigation centre in New Brunswick	Joni Glissen, PhD. Implementing the US dementia care ecosystem in the Belgian primary care context	Sander L. Hitzig, PhD. The use of implementation science to improve and evaluate the patient navigator role
1:45-2:00 pm	Megan Patton, BAsC(c). The Perspectives of youth regarding a patient navigator intervention	Krystal Kehoe MacLeod, PhD. Practices in integrated home care programs that support older adults in system navigation	Amy E. Reid, BA, MAHSR. The impact of patient navigation: a scoping review
2:00-2:15 pm	Judy Shum, BA, MPA. 211: Bridging navigation between healthcare and social services	Margot McWhirter, OT Reg. (Ont.), MA. Navigating aging-in-place	Michelle Quinlan Newcomer navigation from coast-to-coast: Key findings from a pan-Canadian needs assessment
2:15-2:30 pm	Anton Miller, MB.ChB., FRCPC. BC navigation summit for child/youth neurodisability: Learning from stakeholders	Haley Flaro, BA. The kitchen table project: Navigation with seniors with a mobility disability	Andreina Da Silva, BA. Exploring the impacts of navigation vs. self-navigation: A randomized controlled trial
2:30-2:45 pm	Emily Gardiner, PhD. Identifying the “key ingredients” of navigation for children with neurodisability	Kristina Kokorelias, PhD. A novel patient navigation model to support older adults with complex needs	Sugy Kodeeswaran, MHSs, BSc. Navigating navigation: the implementation imperative
2:45-3:00 pm	Break

CANADIAN
HEALTHCARE
NAVIGATION
CONFERENCE

RE-IMAGINING HEALTHCARE NAVIGATION:

Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Accessibility

APRIL 22, 2022

Time (EST)	Session
3:00-4:00 pm	Panel Discussion – Navigator Education and Training: Current Practices and Future Directions
Moderator: Roula Markoulakis	Panel Members
	Marlisse McRobie Kassandra Martinez Colin MacRae Rosemary Kohr
4:00-4:15 pm	Closing Remarks

Thank you for attending the
Canadian Healthcare Navigation
Conference on April 21-22, 2022.

